

'A climate of terror'

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) John Sweeney

Source USA Today

Date April 9, 2008

URL <http://blogs.usatoday.com/oped/2008/04/opposing-view-a.html>

Quote

“ If workers in a country with a 55% poverty rate cannot be in a union without fear of death, how can they speak up for their economic freedom? How can they benefit from a free trade agreement? That's why the AFL-CIO is opposing President Bush's Colombia free trade agreement. If we are serious about protecting workers' rights, we cannot ignore targeted murders and a climate of terror for unionists. ”

The following other items refer to this item: Colombia's Case

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Agreement should be ratified on the topic Colombia-United States Free Trade Agreement.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=%27A_climate_of_terror%27&oldid=7429"

This page was last edited on April 9, 2008, at 13:20.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.