

Keep America Open to Trade

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Carlos Gutierrez, Arnold Schwarzenegger

Source The Wall Street Journal

Date May 12, 2008

URL <http://online.wsj.com/article/SB121055661828684155.html>

Quote

“Opening markets and lowering barriers for U.S. exports creates jobs, spurs innovation, and gives our economy a competitive edge. Consumers also see the benefits -- they get a greater variety of higher-quality goods at lower prices. Free-trade agreements (FTAs) -- including those now pending before Congress with Colombia, Panama and South Korea -- solidify our relationships with key allies and level the trade playing field by lowering export barriers to American businesses, workers and farmers.”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position Agreement should be ratified on the topic Colombia-United States Free Trade Agreement.

This item argues for the position Agreement should be ratified on the topic U.S.-Korea Free Trade Agreement.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Keep_America_Open_to_Trade&oldid=7538"

This page was last edited on May 12, 2008, at 17:56.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.