

Seeking justice

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Nat Hentoff

Source The Washington Times

Date September 11, 2006

URL <http://www3.washingtontimes.com/op-ed/20060910-101234-2274r.htm>

Quote

“ "By marginalizing and ignoring the independent advice of the JAGs for the past four years, the Bush administration has seriously eroded what had been our moral leadership around the world, including among our allies, in the war on terrorists. Now, [...] they are proposing to retain certain interrogation practices that clearly violate the Geneva Conventions' prohibition of "humiliating and degrading treatment" of prisoners."

”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Act should be passed on the topic Military Commissions Act of 2006.

This item refers to the previous opinion item Changes could harm American prisoners.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Seeking_justice&oldid=6273"

This page was last edited on July 16, 2007, at 16:35.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.