

A Moment to be Seized in Lebanon

This is the approved revision of this page, as well as being the most recent.

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Charles Krauthammer

Source The Washington Post

Date 8/18/2006

URL <http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/article/2006/08/17/AR2006081701190.html>

Quote

“ This is no time for the U.S. ambassador to the U.N. to be saying, when asked about the creation of an international force, that "this really is a responsibility of the Secretariat." Maybe officially, but if we are not working frantically behind the scenes to make sure that this preposterously inappropriate body actually gets real troops in quickly, armed with the right equipment and the right mandate, the moment will be lost. And with it, Lebanon.”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position United Nations should disarm Hezbollah on the topic 2006 Israel-Lebanon conflict.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=A_Moment_to_be_Seized_in_Lebanon&oldid=3483"

This page was last edited on October 1, 2006, at 14:33.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.