

A deal to regret

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Boston Herald editorial board

Source Boston Herald

Date November 26, 2013

URL http://bostonherald.com/news_opinion/opinion/editorials/2013/11/editorial_a_deal_to_regret

Quote

“ The dreadful fact of life is that any deal that is causing jubilation in the streets of Tehran, but trepidation in the streets of Jerusalem and Riyadh cannot be a good thing. The Saudis have been remarkably quiet thus far, but they know well that allowing Iran to continue any uranium enrichment — and this agreement does that — undercuts previous United Nations efforts to halt enrichment entirely. ”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position United States should not have signed agreement on the topic Geneva interim agreement on Iranian nuclear program.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=A_deal_to_regret&oldid=17079"

This page was last edited on November 27, 2013, at 18:27.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.