A lame joke becomes reality

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Mark Steyn

Source The Orange County Register

Date June 10, 2007

URL http://www.ocregister.com/ocregister/opinion/nationalcolumns/article_1723669.php

Quote

"Whether they were detained, rejected, approved or posthumously approved, in the end it made no difference. Because U.S. immigration had no real idea who these men were. But, don't worry, they'll be able to handle another "12 million undocumented Americans" tossed in for express processing. The real "immigration fraud" is not Mahmoud abu Halima's or John Lee Malvo's or Mohammed Atta's, but that of the politicians who attempted to foist this sham bill on the nation."

"

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Act should be passed on the topic Comprehensive Immigration Reform Act of 2007.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=A lame joke becomes reality&oldid=5900"

This page was last edited on June 11, 2007, at 02:36.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.