Quote

“ It’s important to note that while Democrats have raised more PAC money and conservatives have the edge in nonprofit advocacy fundraising, all the spending by Americans for Prosperity, American Crossroads and other conservative groups has gained Republicans almost nothing. The GOP didn’t retake the Senate in 2012, and President Obama won re-election. Money, even big money, is no substitute for solid organization and a good ground game. No one has proved this more than Las Vegas Sands Corp. Chairman Sheldon Adelson, who has poured a fortune into the campaigns of losing candidates. ”
