Don't turn U.S. back on hemispheric allies

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) San Antonio Express-News editorial board

Source San Antonio Express-News

Date May 17, 2007

URL http://www.mysanantonio.com/opinion/editorials/stories/MYSA051807.010.freetrade1ed.24ccab0.html

Quote

"Critics contend the government of President Álvaro Uribe hasn't done enough under these circumstances to protect human rights. What's certain is that he'll be able to do far less if his government is abandoned by the United States. The United States has better leverage over labor conditions, environmental issues and human rights in Latin America with these free trade agreements in place than without them."

"

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position Agreement should be ratified on the topic Colombia-United States Free Trade Agreement.

This item argues for the position Agreement should be ratified on the topic Peru-United States Free Trade Agreement.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Don%27t turn U.S. back on hemispheric allies&oldid=5817"

This page was last edited on May 20, 2007, at 14:36.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.