

Endgame in Gaza

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Charles Krauthammer

Source The Washington Post

Date January 9, 2009

URL <http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/article/2009/01/08/AR2009010802993.html>

Quote

“ "The disintegration of Hamas rule in Gaza would be a devastating blow to Palestinian rejectionists, who since the Hamas takeover of Gaza have been the ascendant "strong horse" in Palestinian politics. It would be a devastating blow to Iran as patron of radical Islamist movements throughout the region, particularly after the defeat and marginalization of Iran's Sadrist client in Iraq. It would encourage the moderate Arab states to continue their U.S.-allied confrontation of Iran and its proxies. And it would demonstrate Israel's irreplaceable strategic value to the United States in curbing and containing Iran's regional ambitions." ”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position Israel was right to attack Gaza on the topic Gaza War.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Endgame_in_Gaza&oldid=9835"

This page was last edited on July 14, 2009, at 17:42.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.