Financial fix better than ugly alternative

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) The Dallas Morning News editorial board

Source The Dallas Morning News Date September 25, 2008

URL http://www.dallasnews.com/sharedcontent/dws/dn/opinion/editorials/stories/DN-economy_25edi.ART.State.Edition1.26b31c6.html

Quote

"Mr. Paulson has asked for widespread powers that could not be challenged. This is unacceptable. All powers should be temporary and subject to congressional review. Specifically, Congress should demand detailed quarterly updates to show how the money is being spent, and the review process should be open to public scrutiny. In addition, Congress should set clear terms under which the assistance program would end."

"

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position United States should bail out the banking industry on the topic Economic crisis of 2008.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Financial fix better than ugly alternative&oldid=8134"

This page was last edited on September 30, 2008, at 19:18.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.