

https://www.discoursedb.org/wiki/For\_president,\_we\_can%27t\_lend\_our\_name\_to\_men\_whose\_values\_we\_don%27t\_share

For president, we can't lend our name to men whose values we don't share

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) The Detroit News editorial board

Source The Detroit News

Date October 29, 2020

URL <https://www.detroitnews.com/story/opinion/editorials/2020/10/29/presidential-endorsement-withheld-detroit-news-fourth-time/3745346001/>

Quote

“ On policy, though, we have agreed with many things the president has done. Perhaps the accomplishment that will stand the longest is his appointment of textualist judges throughout the federal court system, including three excellent Supreme Court justices. But the overall policy performance is mixed. For example, his tax and regulatory reforms jerked America out of a lethargic recovery and put it in full-steam-ahead mode. Yet he did not match the tax cuts with spending reductions, continuing America’s disastrous deficit course. ”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Trump should be elected on the topic 2020 United States presidential election.

This item argues against the position Biden should be elected on the topic 2020 United States presidential election.