

Free Gaza

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) The Nation editorial board

Source The Nation

Date June 3, 2010

URL <http://www.thenation.com/article/free-gaza>

Quote

“What could have driven Israel to order its navy to attack, in international waters, a flotilla of ships full of human rights activists, MPs from governments around the world, a Nobel Prize winner and two former US diplomats? What was there to gain from killing civilians—at least nine are dead, along with several dozen injured—attempting to deliver desperately needed humanitarian aid for the 1.5 million people of Gaza suffering under an Israeli blockade?”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Israel was justified in its actions on the topic Gaza flotilla raid.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Free_Gaza&oldid=12114"

This page was last edited on June 7, 2010, at 17:03.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.