

GOP's Best Medicine

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Randall Hoven

Source New York Post

Date August 16, 2009

URL http://www.nypost.com/seven/08162009/postopinion/opedcolumnists/gops_best_medicine_184850.htm?page=0

Quote

“The Heritage Foundation estimated that Jim DeMint's plan, which, like the Patients' Choice Act, is based on vouchers, would insure an extra 22.4 million people -- more than the 16 million that the Congressional Budget Office estimates would be added to health insurance rolls by ObamaCare. The numbers for the PCA, which Heritage did not study, are likely similar.”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Act should be passed on the topic Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=GOP%27s_Best_Medicine&oldid=11310"

This page was last edited on March 11, 2010, at 14:32.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.