

GOP greets stimulus bill with ‘audacity of nope’

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) USA Today editorial board

Source USA Today

Date February 12, 2009

URL <http://blogs.usatoday.com/oped/2009/02/our-view-on-pol.html>

Quote

“When it began life in the House last month, it was a grab bag easy to snipe at because Democrats stuffed it with projects that had little or nothing to do with the original purpose — strengthening the social safety net and creating jobs. In the main, that's what the latest version does. Much of the money goes to help people who've been thrown out of work, and there's spending for projects aimed at creating jobs.”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position Act should be passed on the topic American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=GOP_greets_stimulus_bill_with_‘audacity_of_nope’&oldid=9082"

This page was last edited on February 12, 2009, at 13:30.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.