

Health Care Realities

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Paul Krugman

Source The New York Times

Date July 31, 2009

URL <http://www.nytimes.com/2009/07/31/opinion/31krugman.html>

Quote

“ Right-wing opponents of reform would have you believe that President Obama is a wild-eyed socialist, attacking the free market. But unregulated markets don't work for health care — never have, never will. To the extent we have a working health care system at all right now it's only because the government covers the elderly, while a combination of regulation and tax subsidies makes it possible for many, but not all, nonelderly Americans to get decent private coverage.”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position Act should be passed on the topic Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Health_Care_Realities&oldid=11317"

This page was last edited on March 11, 2010, at 14:33.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.