Health care lies

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s)	Las Vegas Review-Journal editorial board
Source	Las Vegas Review-Journal
Date	July 23, 2010
URL	http://www.lvrj.com/opinion/health-care-lies-99089234.html
Quote	"Either the mandate is a tax, as the Obama Justice Department now asserts in court, and President Barack Obama lied to the American people -- loudly, firmly, repeatedly, as he worked to get this massive federal power grab enacted -- or else Barack Obama was telling the truth last year, the penalty is not a tax, and the Justice Department (directly answerable to the president) is lying in court today when it asserts no one can challenge the mandate because it falls under the wide-ranging "taxing authority" ... that it's a tax. Someone's lying: either Barack Obama or Barack Obama."

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position Act should not have been passed on the topic Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Health_care_lies&oldid=12508"

This page was last edited on July 23, 2010, at 16:27.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.