

New START, Old Whine

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Investor's Business Daily editorial board

Source Investor's Business Daily

Date November 24, 2010

URL <http://www.investors.com/NewsAndAnalysis/Article.aspx?id=554818&p=1>

Quote

“ But in West Germany, and especially in Britain, the major opposition parties were practically — if not actually — in favor of unilateral nuclear disarmament. European democracies have a notorious history of being susceptible to the seduction of appeasement, and nearly succumbed during the Reagan-Thatcher era. A nuclear arms control pact cannot be passed blindly under the rationale that "it is in everybody's interests to work on reducing our nuclear arsenals." GOP senators want it made clear what New START really does, and what Moscow believes it does.”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Treaty should be ratified on the topic New START.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=New_START,_Old_Whine&oldid=13485"

This page was last edited on November 26, 2010, at 14:52.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.