O's Broken Promises

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Betsy McCaughey

Source New York Post

Date July 17, 2009

URL http://www.nypost.com/seven/07172009/postopinion/opedcolumnists/os_broken_promises_179667.htm

Quote

"It's one thing to require that people getting government assistance tolerate managed care, but the legislation limits you to a managed-care plan even if you and your employer are footing the bill (Senate bill, p. 57-58). The goal is to reduce everyone's consumption of health care and to ensure that people have the same health-care experience, regardless of ability to pay."

,,

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Act should be passed on the topic Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=O%27s Broken Promises&oldid=11343"

This page was last edited on March 11, 2010, at 14:37.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.