Proceed with caution on military intervention in Libya

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) The Orange County Register editorial board

Source The Orange County Register

Date March 10, 2011

URL http://articles.ocregister.com/2011-03-10/news/28681317_1_moammar-gadhafi-egypt-s-military-leaders-military-proposals

Quote

According to the International Institute for Strategic Studies, a no-fly zone would have limited effectiveness in stopping Gadhafi's advances. Most of Libya's fighter jets are nonoperational, and its air superiority stems from 35 attack helicopters, which can evade the anti-aircraft measures of a no-fly zone.

,,

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position United States should impose a no-fly zone on the topic 2011 Libyan uprising.

This item refers to the previous opinion item On Libya, too many questions.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Proceed_with_caution_on_military_intervention_in_Libya&oldid=1413 5"

This page was last edited on March 13, 2011, at 18:05.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.