

The "Don't Protect America" Democrats

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Matthew Continetti

Source The Weekly Standard

Date March 11, 2008

URL <http://weeklystandard.com/Content/Public/Articles/000/000/014/856rtgux.asp>

Quote

“ Federal case law has long upheld the president's authority to gather foreign intelligence without warrant. FISA does not trump that authority. You do not have to take our word for it, either. It was a Democrat, Carter attorney general Griffin Bell, who pointed this out when FISA was created in 1978. It was another Democrat, Clinton's deputy attorney general Jamie Gorelick, later a vice chair of the 9/11 Commission, who made the same point when FISA was amended in 1994.”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position Act should be renewed on the topic Protect America Act of 2007.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=The_%22Don%27t_Protect_America%22_Democrats&oldid=7359"

This page was last edited on March 17, 2008, at 02:42.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.