

The United Nations and Darfur

---

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) The New Republic editorial board

Source The New Republic

Date September 1, 2006

URL <http://www.tnr.com/doc.mhtml?i=20060911&s=editorial091106>

Quote

“ We could have chosen another path. We could have bypassed the maddeningly slow U.N. machinery, assembled a coalition of allies under the banner of nato, and dispatched troops to Darfur ourselves--without consent from, or apologies to, the men in Khartoum who orchestrated this evil. The United States could have led the way. We still could.”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position NATO should intervene on the topic Darfur conflict.

---

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=The\_United\_Nations\_and\_Darfur&oldid=3516"

---

This page was last edited on October 3, 2006, at 03:42.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.