

The consequences of doing nothing in Syria

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Frida Ghitis

Source The Miami Herald

Date September 5, 2013

URL <http://www.miamiherald.com/2013/09/05/3608155/the-consequences-of-doing-nothing.html>

Quote

“ There is a reason for the taboo on WMDs, reasons why humanity is particularly horrified by their use. And there will be consequences if the world as a whole looks the other way when a dictator shoots rockets filled with poison at his own people. ”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position United States should intervene on the topic Syrian civil war.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=The_consequences_of_doing_nothing_in_Syria&oldid=16867"

This page was last edited on September 6, 2013, at 13:07.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.