

The flotilla fiasco

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) The Washington Post editorial board

Source The Washington Post

Date June 1, 2010

URL <http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/article/2010/05/31/AR2010053103160.html?hpid=opinionsbox1>

Quote

“Mr. Netanyahu's aim should have been to prevent the militants from creating the incident they were hoping for. Allowing the boats to dock in Gaza, as Israel had done before, would have been better than sending military commandos to intercept them. The fact that the soldiers who roped down from helicopters to the lead Turkish ferry were unprepared to subdue its passengers without using lethal force only compounded the error.”

”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item takes a mixed stance on the position Israel was justified in its actions on the topic Gaza flotilla raid.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=The_flotilla_fiasco&oldid=12063"

This page was last edited on June 2, 2010, at 13:02.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.