

Torture by any other name is just as vile

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Andrew Sullivan

Source The Times

Date September 24, 2006

URL <http://www.timesonline.co.uk/article/0,,29449-2371815,00.html>

Quote

“ We know that one prisoner in Guantanamo Bay was forced to go without sleep for 48 of 55 consecutive days and nights. He was also manacled naked to a chair in a cell that was air-conditioned to around 50F and had cold water poured on him repeatedly, until hypothermia set in. [...] According to the president of the United States, this is not “severe mental or physical pain or suffering”. This is an “alternative interrogation method”.” ”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Compromise bill should be passed on the topic Military Commissions Act of 2006.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Torture_by_any_other_name_is_just_as_vile&oldid=3999"

This page was last edited on November 29, 2006, at 15:05.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.