

Unchecked power: The courts and Obamacare

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) New Hampshire Union Leader editorial board

Source New Hampshire Union Leader

Date December 15, 2010

URL <http://unionleader.com/article.aspx?articleId=5795c3f9-308b-4e17-973b-35762b8ca522>

Quote

“ "After more appeals, the battle over Obamacare's constitutionality will reach the Supreme Court. The justices will doubtless read Judge Hudson's ruling and its clear summary sentence: "At its core, this dispute is not simply about regulating the business of insurance -- or crafting a scheme of universal health coverage -- it's about an individual's right to choose to participate." "

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Act should not have been passed on the topic Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Unchecked_power:_The_courts_and_Obamacare&oldid=13642"

This page was last edited on December 17, 2010, at 21:24.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.