Written to fail

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Rich Lowry

Source New York Post

Date June 30, 2009

URL http://www.nypost.com/seven/06302009/postopinion/opedcolumnists/written_to_fail_176795.htm

Quote

"Perversities abound. The Los Angeles Times reported that, under the bill, America "would use more carbon-dioxide heavy coal in 2020 than it did in 2005." Time magazine writes that "the total amount of renewable energy generation . . . would actually be less than the renewable energy that would have been produced without the bill." Isn't saving the planet grand?"

"

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Act should be passed on the topic American Clean Energy and Security Act.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Written_to_fail&oldid=9747"

This page was last edited on July 2, 2009, at 13:28.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.