

You Also Can't Keep Your Doctor

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Edie Littlefield Sundby

Source The Wall Street Journal

Date November 4, 2013

URL <http://online.wsj.com/news/articles/SB10001424052702304527504579171710423780446>

Quote

“ Since March 2007 United Healthcare has paid $1.2 million to help keep me alive, and it has never once questioned any treatment or procedure recommended by my medical team. The company pays a fair price to the doctors and hospitals, on time, and is responsive to the emergency treatment requirements of late-stage cancer. Its caring people in the claims office have been readily available to talk to me and my providers. But in January, United Healthcare sent me a letter announcing that they were pulling out of the individual California market. The company suggested I look to Covered California starting in October. ”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position Act should not have been passed on the topic Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=You_Also_Can%27t_Keep_Your_Doctor&oldid=16958"

This page was last edited on November 4, 2013, at 13:51.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.